The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page Illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

COMMISSIONERS OF REVENUE.

A peremptory stop was put to the appointment of commissioners of the revenue for the State of Virginia late Saturday by the service of notice and by petition being served at Culpeper upon Judge D. A. Grimsley, of that judicial circuit.

The petition praying for the writ of prohibition as against all the judges of circuit courts in this State from making the appointments of commissioners of the revenue in all counties of their circuits will be presented to the full bench of the State Supreme Court at its next sitting at Staunton on the 10th day of September.

The last Legislature of Virginia, being unable to do so by the State Constitution, deprived the people of the State of the right to elect by popular vote their commissioners of the revenue, and actually placed the selection of them in the hands of the circuit courts, which has caused a tumult of dissatisfaction all over the State. The petition proceeds upon the theory that this legislative act is unconstitutional, in that it seeks to divest the people of the State of the right to elect their commissioners of the revenue and delegates.

There are also other grounds alleged in the petition for the writ of prohibition. The petition is thought to be very strong, and if granted will, of course, prohibit the judges of circuits from appointing the commissioners of revenue of the entire State, and those officers will then be elected by the vote of the people at the coming fall election. It is generally understood that the judges of the State are very much averse to making these appointments of commissioners of the revenue, and will be glad if the petition for the writ of prohibition, as prayed for, will be granted.

NATIONALISTS LEAVE.

The chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Birrell, announced in the British House of Commons yesterday afternoon that the government was prepared to accept some but not all the amendments of the House of Lords to the Irish evicted tenants bill, whereupon John Redmond, chairman of the Irish parliamentary party, said he declined to take any further part in the discussion of the measure.

Mr. Redmond accused the government of failure to carry out its promises to the Irish people, and said the bill as it now stood provided for the cumpulsory removal of tenants who had taken farms from evicted persons, and, therefore, was a victory for Lard Clanricarde, whose evicted tenants had for 20 years been waiting at the roadside for an opportunity to return to their homes, but who would not be able to do so under the bill, as amended by the House of Lords.

"It was evident," continued Mr. Redmond, "that the Irish must close their ranks and recommend a strong, menacing agitation as the only means of securing proper land legislation." The Irish nationalists then left the House in a body and another committee of the House of Commons was appointed to confer with the House of Lords to see what could be saved of the mutilated measure.

Eczema.

For the good of those suffering with eczema or other such trouble, I wish to say, my wife had something of that kind and after using the doctors' remedies for some time concluded to try Chamberlain's Salve, and it proved to be better than anything she had tried. CALLS WIFE POKER QUEEN.

Branding his wife, Mrs. Ina Ward Jaycox, as the poker queen of Chicago, Elbert E. Jaycox, a prominent La Salle street insurance broker, has exposed the mad manners of a North side social set and declared his wife has turned his home into a gambling hell. The expose is contained in the answer to Mrs. Jaycox's bill for divorce.

Averring that Mrs. Jaycox realizes from $25 to $35 a week from the "kitty" and on poker privileges which she rents out, he says: "It is her wish that I and the children shall have the house that she may uninterruptedly proceed with her poker parties, thus realizing for herself the proceeds of a game not countenanced by law."

The set in which Mrs. Jaycox moves is said to be poker mad. The bill claims that the women have gradually succumbed to the fascinations of the game until they are now professional gamblers. About these pokerfests the folk in the fashionable world have much to say today. Strange tales are told of scenes in which fair women climbed upon chairs and shouted exultantly over their winnings, while still others left certain residences weeping.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 27, 1907.

ANOTHER JONAH has appeared in the world, and, according to the "prophet," yet forty days and—not Nineveh, but the United States—shall have been destroyed. There are, however, no preparations being made, so far as can be seen, by the inhabitants of the country to sit in sackcloth and ashes, in order to avert this dire calamity, as did the Ninevites. "This country will be entirely destroyed on account of its wickedness on the last day of this month," according to the forecast of Samuel Willhite, who claims to be a preacher. On July 22, Willhite says, "I had a vision in which I was told that in 40 days we shall all be annihilated for our wickedness. I packed up my belongings, and, with my wife and children, hastened to New York and sailed for England on July 31. We arrived eight day's later, and I set to work preaching on the street. I was arrested twice and was finally ordered deported." Willhite was found on the pier of the Cunard Steamship Company in New York yesterday almost penniless, and with no possession save what he wore. He was placed in the municipal lodging house and will be sent to Arkansas, where, it is said, he has a farm.

BISHOP J. W. WALDEN, of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Cincinnati, addressed a street crowd at one of the prominent street corners Saturday night. "If the people will not come to church, as appears nowadays to be case, the church must go to the people," says Bishop Walden. The decline in church attendance has become a serious matter for the consideration of the clergy. The percentage of men who attend church at present is small and, sad to relate, is growing smaller year by year. Women and children compose the bulk of most congregations. Bishop Walden has probably adopted the proper course—if men refuse to go to the church the church should go to them. But in connection with the above the question may be asked, What is the real cause of the gradual decline in church attendance? All sorts of schemes, many savoring of the world, have been devised for the purpose of keeping up church attendance, but they have proven but temporary means of keeping ministers from preaching to empty benches. There must be some reason for the present lack of interest in spiritual matters. The fault lies at some door.

IT HAS become known that several cases of bubonic plague have developed in San Francisco recently. At least five cases have been discovered, and four deaths have resulted. With one exception the victims were foreigners and resided in the neighborhood of old Chinatown. The authorities took prompt measures and a spread of the disease was checked, but too great precautions against its recurrence cannot be taken.

IN HIS speech at Portland, Me., yesterday before the American Bar Association Judge Alton B. Parker said: "Every unnecessary and unwise statute is a blot upon the State escutcheon and a burden upon the public. This fact is so well appreciated in some States that the legislature is not permitted to meet every year." True, and biennial sessions are often enough for the people of any State.

MARRIAGE with a deceased wife's sister has finally become legalized in Great Britian, the House of Lords yesterday evening having, by 98 to 54 votes, passed the bill sanctioning such unions. The history of this bill dates back to the reign of Henry VIII., who forbade a man to marry the sister of his deceased wife.

THE republicans of this district in convention assembled in Alexandria today, went to the unnecessary trouble of nominating a candidate for Congress—Mr. E. L. Howard, of Fairfax. This is as near Congress as he will ever get.

IT IS announced in Washington that the congressional committee in charge of the Panama canal expenditures will make personal investigation of conditions on the isthmus. Another junketing trip all at the expense of the government.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has approved the plan to spend $8,000,000 more than the appropriation to rush the work on the Panama canal. The acts of Congress don't stand in Mr. Roosevelt's way.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Aug. 27.

Arrangements are being made to give Secretary of War Taft, when he reaches Oregon and Washington, the greatest "send-off" a departing American statesman ever got. John Barrett, director of the Pan-American Bureau, and himself a native of Oregon, who has had charge of the arrangements, says that nowhere in his travels, even in Europe on his return trip, will the secretary be more elaborately entertained than in the two northwestern States. There will be a continuous round of receptions, banquets and speeches for five days from the time he enters Oregon until he sails from Seattle for the Philippines.

No representations have yet reached the State Department from Japan regarding the killing of Japanese seal poachers on the Pribyloff islands a year ago. A dispatch from Tokio says that investigation made by Japanese agents demonstrated that the poachers made no resistance when they were discovered at their work of killing and skinning seals and that the shooting and killing of some of their number by the American guards was unwarranted.

Assistant Secretary Edwards, of the Treasury Department, when asked whether the Jamestown Exposition was making any payments on the government loan of $1,000,000, answered: "No, they are not; but I think that they will in the end be able to make good. They have been working against overwhelming odds."

Additional officers have been ordered to San Francisco by the Marine Hospital and Public Health Service to combat the spread of the plague. Since the discovery of the four cases two weeks ago, a sailor died at the Marine Hospital of the disease and at least two more cases have developed.

Because of lack of room at the Boston navy yard the Navy Department has under consideration the transfer of the frigate Constitution from that yard which has been its regular station for the last half century to either the Naval Academy at Annapolis or in the Potomac river at Washington. Acting Secretary Newberry has taken the subject up with the Governor of Massachusetts and suggested that if the people of that State or of Boston city are anxious that the ship remain there they provide an anchorage for it in the Back Bay or elsewhere where it will not interfere with the work of the department at the navy yard. The department feels that it would be more appropriate, however, to have this ship stationed at Annapolis. It is also thought that it would be better to have the ship brought to Washington rather than have it remain at Boston, and have it anchored within sight of the White House and near the Washington Monument where it could be viewed by the people visiting the capital of the nation.

Peace in Central America through the friendly mediation of the United States and Mexico is said to be assured.

In the year of 1905 there was manufactured in the United States over thirty-five million dollars worth of newspapers.

President Castro's repeated refusal to submit arbitration to five American claims against that government, places the United States in an embarrassing situation.

After four hours of stubborn wrangling, the committee on ordinance, charter and reform of the Richmond City Council, accepted last night a subsitute liquor plan offered by Alderman W. T. Dabney, limiting the number of saloons to 150, exclusive of hotels, and fixing the license at $500. This action, however, is not final on the committee's part, as it will be threshed over again at a subsequent meeting before being submitted to the Council.

A reunion of all the Confederate veterans of northern Virginia was held yesterday at the Loudoun camp meeting, at Benton's Woods, near Middleburg. Among the speakers were Mr. C. C. Carlin and Rev. E. V. Regester, of this city. The attendance was large. The meeting closed yesterday.

ASSAULT IN THE COUNTY.

A well-dressed young man, accompanied by a girl about twenty years old and of refined manner and appearence, went to the Emergency Hospital in Washington late Sunday night and reported that they had been brutally assaulted by a negro at a place known as "Dead Man's Hollow," at the southern extremity of the Aqueduct Bridge. The man was bleeding and the girl was in a highly hysterical condition. Several stitches were taken in the man's face, which had been laid open by a blow from a blunt instrument, and restoratives were administered to the girl. The man gave his name as Charles Butler and the young woman that of Mary Fortney, though their names are believed to be fictitious, as their address could not be found.

According to the story told by the young man, he and the young woman were attacked by a negro as they were walking through a wooded stretch near the end of the Aqueduct Bridge to catch a car for Washington. They had been visiting in that section, they said, and they were returning home.

As they were about to pass out of the woods the negro, who, they said, was crouching behind a clump of bushes, suddenly sprang upon them. He grasped the young woman about the neck and endeavored to throw her to the ground. The man rushed at the negro when the latter released his hold on the girl, and, turning, dealt her escort a blow in the face with a blunt instrument that felled him to the ground. The assailant turned his attention to the girl and attempted to grapple with her. She fought him off, screaming meanwhile at the top of her voice.

The young man soon scrambled to his feet and rushed to the aid of the young woman and succeeded in knocking the negro down when he rained blows upon him. This lasted but a few minutes, when the negro threw him off and, springing to his feet, escaped into the woods.

The Market.

Georgetown, Aug. 27.—Wheat 73a78.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Telegrapher's Strike.

New York, Aug. 27.—"We are giving them their chances today. If every man does not leave his key before noon tomorrow, they will be expelled from the Union. Every man working at a telegraph instrument for the Western Union, Postal or Associated Press, after noon tomorrow, will be a scab. This is the final step in making this an open warfare without restriction."

This is the statement given out at the head quarters of the local union today. It is the result of the adoption of a resolution by the strikers to extend grace to the strike breakers only until noon on Wednesday.

Belvidere Brooks, Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Western Union, said, today: "We have all the employees we want, and more, too. What difference goes it make how many orders or resolutions the union sends out or adopts, Our men are not in the union, and the union has no connection with the Western Union. That is no concern of ours and none of our business. We have never recognized the union and never expect to. That is our position in a nutshell. We are sending all the messages that are delivered to us to send and we are not using the mails, express, or suit case methods, so absurdly charged and reiterated by the strikers."

Vice President Adams, of the Postal Company, said today that his company was having no difficulty in handling its business. He said that the union's ultimatum would have no effect, as his company was employing men only when they signed a contract to work only in the interest of the company.

The New York Bond Issue.

New York, Aug. 27.—If J. P. Morgan is to underwrite an issue of $40,000,000 of New York City 4½ per cent bonds and, until the issue is disposed of, to exercise a kind of censorship over the municipality's finances is the arrangement, Wall street wants to know.

The announcement that Morgan will float the city's bond issue is not official, but it comes from sources which leave little doubt of its accuracy. References to the proposed censorship were not made quite as badly, either, as they are discussed in Wall street. It is thus, however, that traders interpret their information. They are so sure of the correctness of reports of the arrangement that the story has had an appreciable effect is stiffening securities on the market.

Wall street does not understand that Morgan acted from purely philanthropic motives when he agreed with the city officials to form an international syndicate to float the bonds. They figure that the issue will be worth at least 110 as soon as the present financial pinch is over, and it is estimated the syndicate will clear fully 10 per cent on the transaction. The bonds are the first sold in years at so high a rate as 4 1-2 per cent. The rate on the issue to be sold September 10 was increased from four per cent as the result of the city's failure to dispose of its last previous issue at that rate. The agreement with Morgan is said to provide that no more bonds are to be issued before next spring.

Election Disorders.

Vienna, August 27.—Fighting between citizens and soldiers, maltreatment of women and girls and attacks on Roumanian villages are only a part of the violence reported to have occurred in connection with an election in the Belenyes constituency of Hungary.

The district is overwhelmingly Roumanian, normally, but the Hungarian government attempted to force the election of a Magyar, and this caused the trouble. The Roumanians rose in revolt, many even resorting to arms. So 2,000 gendarmes, infantry and cavalry, were sent to placate the district and see that the election passed off without resort to illegal methods.

Scenes of indiscredible violence followed this open attempt to control the election. Even women took part in the riots to drive the soldiers away from the polling places. In one instance a party of women captured seventeen Hungarians on their way to vote and held them prisoners until grendarmes released them.

The soldiers retaliated by attacking several Roumanian villages while the men were absent voting. Women were beaten and abused and even children whipped.

The polling ending at 4 a. m., resulted in an overwhelming victory for the Roumanian candidate.

Another Plot Discovered.

Lisbon, Portugal, Aug. 27.—Another plot by republicans, this time directed against the life of the Crown Prince, is declared to have been discovered by the police through the finding of a bomb factory in the Trans-Tagus section of the city. Great quantities of explosives and several perfect bombs were seized in the raid on the factory. The Crown Prince is due to return to Lisbon on September 28, and a great demonstration is being arranged in his honor. It is believed the conspiractors planned an attempted on his life on that occasion. Coming so closely on the heels of the plot against King Carlos and Premier Franco, the conspiracy has caused the greatest alarm.

Miss Maguire's Body Found.

Lake Hopatcong, N. J., Aug. 27.—The body of Miss Agnes Maguire, who disappeared mysteriously Saturday night, is reported to have been found in the lake near the point where she was lost, at 10 o'clock today.

The body bore no bruishes or other marks of violence, and only one theory is now advanced to explain her death—that she became frightened at the storm which was raging, alighted from the carriage to follow her cousin, and stumbled into the water.

Death of Nelson Morris.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Nelson Morris, the millionaire packer, died at his residence today, after a lingering illness of heart disease. He expired in the old family home in Indiana avenue, where he had lived ever since he became a business man in Chicago. He had a superstitious dread of changing his residence, and while his associates in business erected palaces and moved to suburbs, Mr. Morris remained in the old frame house. Nelson Morris was one of the remaining members of the old guard to whose efforts Chicago owes her supremacy in the packing industry.

To Attack Casablanca.

Tangier, Aug. 27.—An attack on Casablanca by Mouley Hafid's army, the newly proclaimed Sultan, is expected within the next few days. Mouley is within two days' march of the city. He had sent word to the Moors surrounding the city not to attack the town again until his arrival.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 27.—The most important factor in the market trading today, was the heavy and urgent demand for stocks here for London account. Arbitrage brokers in the first hour brought fully 50,000 shares. This buying at times was offset by the execution of large selling orders. After the first hour the market became extremely dull.

THE ACCIDENT ON THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

The train bearing the passengers who were on the Southern Railway train which was wrecked at Red Hill, Albemarle county, at an early hour yesterday morning, passed through this city later in the day and after a brief stop proceeded to Washington. Several of the passengers were badly shaken up as the result of the wreck, but as was first reported none was serious injured. The train was running northward at a moderate rate of speed when a defective rail suddenly gave way just as the engine and tender passed over it, and the cars were turned completely over. When the cars left the track they continued to run along the cross ties for a few feet before they turned over. A train was immediately made up at Charlottesville, and the injured taken to that city. The accident occurred within a mile of Pine Knot, Mrs. Roosevelt's summer home, and a short distance from a bridge. Considering the nature of the accident, it seems miraculous that the passengers and crew escaped with minor injuries.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Charles Andrews, 40 years old, an actor, of South Bend, Ind., shot and instantly killed his supposed wife, an actress, a beautiful woman, 32 years of age, and then committed suicide in their apartment in the Saratoga Hotel, Chicago, yesterday. The sound of shots was the signal for a panic among the guests of the hotel and excitement among the pedestrians who filled the street in front of the building. One theory of the police is that the woman was not the wife of Andrews, but some one with whom he had eloped. When found she had two bullet wounds in her breast. The desk, chair, and floor and stationery were covered with blood. Andrews shot himself in the head and died while on the way to St. Luke's Hospital in an ambulance.

FINED FOR HUGGING.

"Thou shalt not kiss or hug on the street" is the latest commandment laid down by the authorities of Pittsburg, Pa., and it is being enforced. Paul Carr, a young man, was yesterday morning fined $10 and costs for hugging his girl on the street Sunday night. He was also told by Magistrate Walker that he would be sent to jail if it occurred again. "Do your kissing and squeezing at home, not on the street," said the court to the downcast lad. This order follows another issued in Allegheny, Pa., sometime ago by Mayor Kirschler to the effect that there should be no more lovemaking in the City Park, and instructing the proper authorities to place electric lamps to shine in dark corners.

J. W. Bayliss, a prominent Frederick county farmer, died Sunday night, aged sixty-eight years, leaving a wife, one son, and two daughters, all of that section.

Uncle Remus's Magazine for September which has been received from its publishers in Atlanta, appears in artistic cover, and the contents fulfill all that the people have been led to expect by the preceeding numbers. Its editor, Joel Chandler Harris, contributes a new song about "Brer Rabbit," writes tenderly of "The Little Children of Snapbean Farm" and touches on the much discussed "Race Question." An article of literary and historic merit is "Through Italy in the Wake of Lucretia Borgia." A sketch of Weisman is given, as is another "Page of Stanton." The fiction and verse of this issue are excellent, and the departments devoted to literary criticism, theatrical gossip, etc., are replete with interest.

The Success magazine for September has been received from its publishers in New York. Its most important article is entitled "Drugging a Race." It is a fore word to the new series to be issued by Samuel Merwin. The presidential problem of 1908 is considered in "Will Roosevelt Run?" "Hunting Mr. Stripes" gives a thrilling account of a tiger hunt in India. "Editors' chat," "Sports and Recreations," "The Well-dressed Man," "The Pulse of the World" other good articles, excellent fiction and verse help in the make-up of this most readable issue.

THE WRIGHT CASE.

As stated in yesterday's Gazette Gov. Swanson on that day decided to commute to life imprisonment the sentence of Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, colored, who, but for executive clemency, would have been hanged in the Alexandria county jail yard next Friday morning for an alleged criminal assault upon Miss Mabel Risley, now Mrs. Forrest Gooding, of Washington.

Gov. Swanson's reasons for commuting the sentence of the court are set forth in the following statement, given out in Richmond yesterday afternoon:

"The prisoner, Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, is a poor, friendless negro, without money and without influence. This fact has induced me to give this matter full and thorough examination.

"I respited him for three months in order to give every opportunity for additional evidence to be procured if possible in this case. I sent for the lady, upon whom thes assault was committed, and her husband to satisfy my mind and conscience fully in this matter. After questioning her and her husband, whose evidence alone procured a conviction; reading fully the evidence in the case, the opinion of the judges and the Supreme Court of Appeals, and especially the additional evidence filed as to the guilt of the prisoner, and considering the fact that the assault was committed between 8 and 8:30 o'clock, when it was dark and difficult to clearly and definitely identify persons, it has established in my mind a serious doubt as to the identity and guilt of the prisoner.

"In addition the foreman of the jury, a person of unusual intelligence and fairness, and a great many of the influential citizens of Alexandria county, requested that this commutation be granted on account of the doubt as to the identification of the prisoner. Hence, I conceive it to be my duty to commute the death penalty in this case to imprisonment for life.

"I have filed before me as new and additional evidence the affidavits of nine persons, whose evidence, if true, would show that the prisoner could not have been present when the assault was committed. The evidence of these nine witnesses establish an alibi, which creates a serious doubt as to the identification of Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, as the party who committed the assault. These nine witnesses all concur in testifying that they saw Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, the prisoner, prior to 8 o'clock and until about 9 o'clock, during which time the assault was committed.

"The fact that the original evidence before the court and jury induced two members of the Court of Appeals to declare it was insufficient identification of the prisoner creates in my mind, with the additional new evidence filed, a serious doubt, which cannot permit me to have the prisoner in this case executed.

"By commuting his sentence to life imprisonment, an opportunity is given him to have this doubt and conflict of testimony between various witnesses at some time satisfactorily settled.

"If in the future developments should be such as to clearly remove the serious doubts in this case and the innocence of the prisoner should be established, all those concerned in the trial and execution of this prisoner would deplore their action in the matter.

"The additional evidence, supplementing the original evidence, produces in my mind such a strong doubt of the identification of the prisoner as the party who committed the assault that I feel I would be recreant to my duty as governor if I should permit this poor, friendless negro to be executed."

Commenting on the action of the Governor the Richmond Journal says:

"The Governor has had the case in hand for about two weeks and during that time has given it extensive and profound consideration. His announcement this morning will cause some surprise, inasmuch as no commutation was expected by the public at large. The case as it now stands is not lacking in dramatic interest. That there will be certain sensational disclosures connected with evidence adduced in the trial of the negro was announced yesterday afternoon by Attorney James E. Clements, of Alexandria, who has been working hard in the behalf of the condemned man since his alleged identification."

Thomas had been sentenced to hang next Friday. In order to ensure safe delivery of the official papers in the case, a special messenger will be delegated to bear them to the Alexandria county jail in order that the sheriff may receive the commutation notice before Friday.

"I shall prove a deliberate and well concocted scheme of conspiracy to bring the negro, Thomas, to the gallows," declared Mr. Clements yesterday, immediately after he had emerged from the office of Governor Swanson, with whom he had been in consultation for several hours. "An attempt has been made to have an innocent man hanged and I shall make it my duty to bring the guilty conspirators to justice. The names of the men I suspect? No, I cannot tell you that; it would be premature. But I shall make the thing public at the proper time. And then it will be a case of righting the wrongs of the condemned negro, vindicating his good name, and having sentence passed upon the conspirators. I have not the least doubt in the world but that long before years have passed, Thomas will have been pardoned. Strange as it may appear, no negroes are suspected in this conspiracy. They are all white men. I shall prove all this in good time."

The assault on Miss Risley, now Mrs. Gooding, of Washington, was committed last September. Thomas was arrested and was tried in the Alexandria county court, and was sentenced to hang for his crime on December 14th. His attorney, Mr. Clements, appealed the case to the Supreme Court of Appeals, and in the early spring that body affirmed the decision of the lower court by a vote of three to two, the decision being affirmed by Judges Keith, Harrison and Buchanan. The dissenting opinion was signed by Judges Cardwell and Whittle. Soon thereafter Thomas was resentenced to hang May 31st. The matter was next brought to the attention of Governor Swanson, who respited the negro until Friday, August 30th. The assault was committed near Luna Park. Miss Risley was there with her betrothed, Forrest Gooding, a resident of Washington. A negro, afterwards identified as Thomas, attacked Gooding first, it is said, and felled him with a club. At the same time in his other hand he flourished a pistol. Gooding, on recovering from the effects of the blow, ran for help. In the meantime the negro had assaulted the young woman.

The news of the governor's decision was received with marked difference of feeling throughout the county. A number of citizens were pleased to hear that the sentence had been commuted, but many asserted belief in the guilt of the negro and held that the verdict of the jury should have been carried out.

There are still two indictments hanging over Thomas, under either of which he may be sentenced to death. One charges him with the murder of Jackson Boney, colored, at the south end of the old Long bridge on the night of August 23, 1906, and the other charges that on the same date, near the same place, he attacked a colored woman, Annie Green. Commonwealth Crandall Mackey has not yet announced what action he will take in these cases.

It is understood that if guards from the penitentiary come to the county for Wright he will not be delivered to them until the court takes action. Wright said today that he cannot believe his sentence has been commuted, nor will he believe it until his attorney tells him.

FRICTION AT JAMESTOWN.

A social war involving prominent persons is in progress at the exposition, and its outcome is yet to be determined. The coming of Prince Wilhelm hastened it to a climax, and was responsible for the appointment of Charles W. Kohlsaat by Director General Barr, as social and diplomatic representative of Barr and the [illegible]. The lawn party tendered Prince Wilhelm by the exposition President, Harry St. George Tucker, and Mrs. Tucker was not attended by Gov. and Mrs. Swanson. The fete champetre was given in the New York State building, when some would naturally suppose that it would be given in the Virginia building. The governor and Mrs. Swanson were at the Virginia building at the time.

Neither did the Barrs attend the function given by President and Mrs. Tucker. They were not invited until the eleventh hour, and then on a personal request for invitations, to be used by the daughter of the director general and a friend who was visiting her. President Tucker attended the dinner given for the prince by Gov. and Mrs. Swanson at the Hotel Chamberlin, but Mrs. Tucker did not. Both were invited.

President Tucker, it has been complained, tried to make the social affairs of the exposition too personal and exclusive. Director General Barr thought so, too, hence the appointment of Kohlsaat.

Gov. Swanson, it is said, agrees with Barr. The governor and the director general were of the opinion that the interests of the exposition suffered. State commissioners to the exposition and hostesses at State buildings have also expressed dissatisfaction with the social recognition given them at the exposition.

Mr. Tucker is in Portland, Me., attending the meeting of the American Bar Association. In defense of his social policy it is stated that $20,000 of his wife's money has been spent in exposition entertaining that should have come from the exposition coffers. The exposition, it is said, has not spent one cent in entertaining. In addition, Mr. Tucker advanced $8,000 of his salary for this purpose.

Barr and his friends take the position that President Tucker had no right to use the exposition for the promotion of his personal social affairs. The argument is made that Barr had no authority to appoint Kohlsaat to the position he did. The exposition directors will meet tomorrow, and it is likely that the war will be considered at their meeting.

The Daily Press, of Newport News, prints the following from Norfolk: No official statement as to the reason for the issuing of the above order can be secured. According to a story circulated on the grounds today, however, the director general's action is a direct result of trouble which has been brewing for sometime between Mrs. Barr and Mrs. Tucker over the matter of social precedence. This story is said to have come from an official who is in a position to know whereof he speaks. According to the report, Mrs. Barr claims to have been deliberately snubbed by the wife of the president at some social function several nights ago, and it is said that she caused the step to be taken which settles very conclusively which of the ladies occupies the ranking position. President Tucker was seen at his office this afternoon by the Daily Press representative, but he declined to make a statement in regard to the matter. When informed that the director general had confirmed the report that the above order had been issued, he simply shook his head and said that he had nothing to say. Everybody on the grounds is talking about the affair and developments are expected. President Tucker's friends say that the president's powers and duties as director of ceremonies were conferred upon him by the board of directors, and that the director general has exceeded his authority. It is said that Mr. Tucker will make a formal protest to the directors, and contest the enforcement of the order.

Last night Mr. W. M. Dixon, assistant director general of the exposition, speaking for Mr. Barr, director general, who is in Bristol, Tenn., in discussing the order promulgated by Mr. Barr making Mr. Kohlsaat, of New York, master of ceremonies of the exposition, declared that the stories abroad to the effect that the slap at President Tucker, of the exposition, was caused by jealousy, politics or by social war all untrue. He said that Mr. Barr had made Mr. Kohlsaat their social secretary to represent him and the exposition company, and that his duties would be to present the personal card of Mr. Barr to any distinguished guest who visited the exposition and to represent Mr. Barr at all social functions. Mr. Dixon asserted again and again that Mr. Kohlsaat was simply Mr. Barr's social secretary, and that Mr. Tucker's duties as president of the exposition had in no way been curtailed.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

ERNEST L. HOWARD NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS FROM EIGHTH DISTRICT.

Republican delegates representing the city of Alexandria and the counties of the Eight congressional district met in Sarepta Hall shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon and after nearly two hours deliberation nominated Mr. Ernest L. Howard to oppose Mr. C. C. Carlin at the polls in November. William B. King, of Loudoun; Joseph L. Crupper, of this city, and M. K. Lowery, of Louisa, were also placed in nomination, but each declined the honor.

The convention was called to order by district chairman H. H. Dodge, of Manassas, and the secretary was J. W. Gregg, of Loudoun.

The roll call showed that less than one half of the accredited delegates were present and King George was not represented at all. One bespectacled colored individual was in the room but not as a delegate and it was said that he represented a colored newspaper. Capt. De Zerega, of Loudoun; Chas. I. Simms, of Alexandria county, and Dr. F. M. Brooks, of Fairfax, were placed in nomination for permanent chairman but before the roll call by counties was completed it was moved to make the nomination of Dr. Brooks unanimous. Mr. Gregg was made permanent secretary. The following were named on the committee on resolutions: W. P. Graves, Chas. I. Simms, R. E. Hume, Edward Walton, J. B. Grayson, W. B. King, B. A. Henson, W. Carter, O. B. Merry and M. K. Lowery. After a short recess this committee, through its chairman, W. B. King, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved by the republican convention of the Eighth congressional district of the State of Virginia, called to nominate a candidate for Congress, That this convention finds its platform in the brilliant record of the ten years administration of Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt particularly in opposition to the trusts and monopolies and pledges the republicans of this district as far as in their power to advance the policies thus already declared and begun.

Resolved, further, that without claiming the right to control the convention of 1908 of this district, this convention desires to place on record its conviction that if President Roosevelt continues in his declination to be the nominee of the republican party for a second elective term, the candidate for the presidency to be named in 1908 should be one thoroughly identified with the policies of President Roosevelt and committed to their enforcement and logical development.

R. E. L. Bouton moved that the convention endorse George B. Cortelyou for the next presidential nomination if President Roosevelt persists in his determination not to accept a third term, and his motion was carried by acclamation.

Mr. Crupper then moved to go into the nomination of a candidate for Congress and when the question as to the advisability of making a nomination was put several replied in the negative. This brought forth speeches from Messrs. Crupper, King, J. C. DePutron, Willard P. Graves, Capt. De Zerega and others, who deplored the disposition on the part of the republicans of the district to lie down before the democrats. It was finally decided unanimously to make a nomination and an effort was made to force the honor upon Mr. King, but he firmly declined on the ground that he was in ill health and had resolved that he would not be a candidate for Congress until he had lived in the district ten years.

Mr. E. L. Howard, postmaster at Herndon, Fairfax county, was then nominated and in a short speech accepted the nomination.

After the congressional convention had adjourned the delegates from Alexandria city and county met and nominated Mr. Frank Evans, of this city, for the House of Delegates.

The delegates from Alexandria city and county and from Prince William and Fairfax counties then nominated Mr. J. C. Deputon, of Fairfax, for the State Senate.

The delegates from Loudoun and Fauquier counties could not agree upon a candidate for "floater" delegate for the legislature and left the nomination to the chairmen of the two delegations to be decided upon at some future time.

THE EXCURSION LAST NIGHT.

The excursion last night for the benefit of the members of the Alexandria police force was well patronized. The steamer Charles Macalester arrived at this port from Washington at 7 o'clock and took on board one of the largest excursion parties that ever left this city. The wharf was densely packed with men, women and children, and nearly half an hour elapsed before they all got aboard the steamer. The Malacester after proceeding to Marshall Hall returned, bringing many Alexandrians home who had gone to the resort during the day. The last boat did not arrive until nearly midnight. The committee of arrangements consisted of Chief Goods, Lieutenant Bettis and Officers Gill, Beach, and Garvey. It is said that each policeman will receive about $22 which will materially aid in purchasing new uniforms.

DEPARTURE OF FIREMEN.

Delegations of Alexandria, Strasburg and Woodstock firemen left here today on the steamer Jamestown for Newport News, where the State Firemen's Convention will meet tomorrow. A large number of friends of the firemen gathered at the wharf to see them off. Thirteen members of the Reliance Company boarded the steamer, and they were accompanied by the Reliance Drum Corps (thirteen pieces). There were thirty in the delegation from the Columbia, three from the Relief Hook and Ladder, twenty from the Strasburg company and forty-three from the Woodstock organization. The firemen will return next Saturday night.

The gutter at Wolfe and Union streets is clogged, and water is spreading over a large portion of that intersection.

DISORDER LAST NIGHT.

About twelve o'clock last night people living on Columbus street, between King and Queen, were awakened by a row which occurred on those two squares in which a number of men and women engaged. It is supposed, that the parties had been on the excursion to Marshall Hall. There was fighting, cursing and brickthrowing, during which the blinds on one residence were broken. The police appeared on the scene, but the combatants scampered away and evaded arrest. FRANCE AND GERMANY.

Jules Cambon, the French ambassador to Germany, has returned to Paris from Norderney, satisfied with the results of his visit to Chancellor von Buelow. The ambassador had three long conversations with the chancellor, covering the entire field of international politics. Most of the subjects were touched upon somewhat lightly, nothing in the way of fresh proposals or serious suggestions being made. Possibly the most interesting subject to the French government at present was the Moroccan situation, upon which the chancellor talked freely, repeating and elaborating what had already been communicated to France through the foreign office at Berlin; namely, Germany's willingness that France should use her own discretion at Casablanca, with the knowledge that Germany will not raise embarrassing questions or seek in any way to place difficulties in her way, or hinder the French work of restoring order and securing the future of Europeans in Morocco.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dsarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—SAM G. GWIN, Concord, Ga. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Valuable Lesson.

"Six years ago I learned a valuable lesson," writes John Pleasant, of Magnolia, Ind. "I then began taking Dr. King's New Life Pills, and the longer I take them the better I find them." They please everybody. Guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 25c.

BLONDIN STILL ALIVE.

Captain Blondin, the once famous tight-wire walker, who made the perilous trip across Niagara Falls nearly fifty years ago, is said to be living the life of a hermit in West Cheshire, Conn., though rumor has it that he died 10 years ago in London. Blondin, who is working as a carpenter on odd jobs and going under the name of Michael Todd, is said to have been recognized by an old circus performer named Abe Totten. Blondin, when found by his old comrade, said: "Yes, I know they think me dead, and, perhaps, I had better be dead. I made money fast and spent it faster in the maddening pleasures of life, and I certainly have felt the need and the value of money since. My oldest son knows where I am. He is with Whitney's circus in the West."

I'll stop your pain free. To show you first—before you spend a penny—what my Pink Pain Tablets can do, I will mail you free, a Trial Package of them—Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Period pains, etc., are due alone to blood congestion. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets simply kill pain by coaxing away the unnatural blood pressure. That is all. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
